

Should We Change the Way We Communicate about Homelessness?

- Mike Allen, Director of Advocacy

FOCUS

Ireland

Challenging homelessness.
Changing lives.

Family Homelessness

Homelessness: the tip of the housing crisis iceberg

*April 2018 figures

FOCUS
Ireland

HOUSING

"They have not grasped the problem': Warnings government is not doing enough to stop evictions

Apr 19th 2018, 6:00 AM 8,263 Views 52 Comments

Housing Minister Eoghan Murphy on Tuesday got Cabinet approval for the general scheme of the new Residential Tenancies Bill.

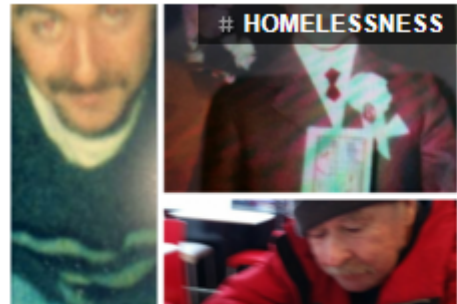

Share

13

Tweet

HOMELESSNESS

'He was kind, loving and sometimes he could be very happy': Tribute to a brother who died on the streets

Apr 22nd 2018, 12:05 AM 90,138 Views 29 Comments

There have been at least 15 reported deaths of homeless people in the past seven months – here are two of their stories.

Share

44

Tweet

HOMELESSNESS

'They are not in secure tenancies': Debate in the Dáil over who should be categorised as homeless

May 8th 2018, 6:49 PM 8,686 Views 27 Comments

Minister Murphy was asked to make a statement following a row last week over hundreds of adults and children being removed from the March homeless figures.

Tweet

HOMELESS TO HOME

'My daughter had a communion last year... my friend had to lend me her house'

May 25th 2018, 1:45 PM 28,822 Views 61 Comments

The first home has been delivered under a government leasing scheme in Dublin.

Share

629

Tweet

FOCUS
Ireland

'Othering' of Homelessness

Housing Agency had warned about homeless 'incentive'

Report to government predates Conor Skehan's 'gaming the system' comments by two years

© Mon, Jan 15, 2018, 05:00

Olivia Kelly

The agency recommended that interventions to prevent people "presenting as homeless" would be beneficial "where there is a potential for a perverse incentive for households to present as homeless in order to secure social housing". Photograph: Cyril Byrne/The Irish Times

RIGHT TO A HOME

FOCUS
Ireland