FEANTSA, the European Federation of National Organisations Working with the Homeless, is recruiting a full-time Energy poverty Policy Assistant to support the area of energy poverty in FEANTSA, focusing on the socially fair implementation of EU energy transition policies. This work includes EU-level advocacy and cooperation with national-level social services providers on the implementation of policies. Some examples of relevant policy areas are the renovation of the worst-performing stock and the buildings of social services providers, with a focus on services for people experiencing homelessness, heat transition of vulnerable groups, such as low-income households living in unfit housing stock, and/or heating with solid fuels.

PROFILE

- Educational background in policy, social sciences, energy, housing/urban studies
- Excellent knowledge of written and spoken English; knowledge of other EU languages is an asset, especially languages of Central-Eastern and Southern European EU member states.
- Good understanding of EU (European Union) energy and/or social affairs
- Good research and analytical skills.
- Excellent communication skills and ability to share information accurately,
- Good interpersonal skills and a positive 'can do' attitude
